The Feast of Female Voice 2005

Back by popular demand for the 5th year in a row, Feast of Female Voice 2005 celebrates live in concert Australian Women of Song.

This years concert features Adelaide's own Salty and Heather Frahn, plus east coast based and internationally known artists Lara Stephen (Syd) and Emma Wall (Melb). The award winning and intimate venue The Jade Monkey hosts these fine performers as they play for you a night of original music not to be missed.

Salty (SA): Earthy with a bite! www.salty.net

Emma Wall (VIC): Funky, lyrical, vibrant, eclectic urban folk. www.emmawall.com

Lara Stephen (NSW): New folk - fresh, but old-worldly with a no-fuss pop sensibility. www.larastephen.com

Heather Frahn (SA): Awesome vocal presence, life lyric with acoustic grooves. www.heatherfrahn.com

FOFV won the publically voted dB Magazine Readers Award for Best Live Music Event in 2003 and is independently run by musician Heather Frahn to help assist in the networking of professional female musicians, and to create opportunities for these artists from around Australia to perform in Adelaide to new live music loving audiences!

All profits go back to the artists, so come and support your Australian musicians and contact FEAST to ensure your tickets now. (less than 200 tickets available for 1 show only)
